DECLARATION OF WILLIAM MOORMANN

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct:

1. I am the Administrative Officer for the Federal Defender’s Office for the Western District of North Carolina (FDO-WDNC). I have served in the FPDO-WDNC since 2006 and assumed duties as Administrative Officer in 2013. I am and have been since 2013 the local contact for human resources and personnel issues, among many other duties. Part of my duties are to maintain all personnel documents and any other documents relating to employment. A true and accurate copy of my job description is published in the DOCS Manual described in this Declaration and attached as Government Exhibit (“GE”) A-1.

2. This declaration is based upon my personal knowledge and the procedures applicable to FDOs across the country, including the Defender Organization Classification System Manual (“DOCS Manual”), the Administrative Office of U.S. Courts procedures, and the Fourth Circuit’s Employee Dispute Resolution (“EDR”) Plan. The DOCS Manual is created and distributed by the Defender Services Organization (“DSO”). The DSO is a national program established to ensure the right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment, the Criminal Justice Act, and other congressional mandates relating to indigent criminal defendants. The DSO also ultimately determines the distribution of the annual budget in the FDO system. The FDO-WDNC’s budget is, therefore, set at the national level, not locally.

3. True and accurate copies of the Introduction, Table of Contents, and “General Information and Key Terms” portion of the DOCS Manual are attached as GE A-2a and 2b. The DOCS Manual and many other materials relating to employment in an FDO are and were during the Plaintiff's employment accessible via the DSO's intranet system to all employees who have an e-mail address ending in "fd.org."

4. On August 19, 2016, Plaintiff applied for a position as a Research & Writing Specialist with the FDO-WDNC in the Charlotte office, to begin the following summer after her completion of a year as a Supreme Court Fellow. A true and accurate copy of Plaintiff's cover letter and resume are attached as GE A-3.

5. On March 24, 2017, Ross Richardson, the Interim Public Defender at the time, sent a letter to Plaintiff formally offering her a Research & Writing Specialist position in "the Charlotte Headquarters Office." She was to begin between July 15 and August 15, 2017. Her start date was August 21 2017 and her salary as a Research & Writing Specialist was set at $101,929.00 per year according to the General Schedule ("GS") 14, Step 1, with the expectation that she would "transition to an Assistant Defender" ("AFD") at an unspecified time in the future. A true and accurate copy of Plaintiff's countersigned offer letter is attached as GE A-4.

6. A true and accurate copy of the job description for Research & Writing Specialist from the DOCS Manual is attached as GE A-5. The Research and Writing Specialist Attorney position is a developmental and trial and appellate support position for attorneys who did not have substantial directly relevant career experience. As stated in the job description, "[t]he Research and Writing Specialist does not ordinarily sign pleadings or make court appearances. The Research & Writing Specialist position is not intended to serve as a proxy, substitute, or replacement for an AFD position, nor in the place of an additional AFD position." These employees do not handle their own caseloads.

7. Since graduating from law school in 2013, Plaintiff had two federal clerkships, one state-level clerkship, and a one-year Supreme Court fellowship, but did not have any first-hand experience trying cases or representing clients. She also had no first-hand experience defending criminal defendants in the federal system or otherwise. Based on what plaintiff told us, she had not tried a case as first or second chair.

8. Typically, the FDO-WDNC hires attorneys with substantially more trial and career experience than Plaintiff had because of the importance of the defense function and because the FDO budget is limited, resulting in fewer attorneys who could devote time to training of less experienced lawyers like the Plaintiff. At the time, there were also a limited number of AFDs the office was able to have due to budgetary restrictions imposed by the DSO.

9. Since Plaintiff's hire, the FDO-WDNC has, like most other FDOs throughout the country, transitioned away from employing Research & Writing Specialists. Instead, lawyers new to the FDO begin as AFDs. However, just like other junior lawyers, inexperienced AFDs are not immediately given their own cases to handle, generally do not appear in court without another attorney, nor do they make ultimate decisions about how to handle cases. With time and experience, these lawyers are given tasks the Defender or the Team Leaders feel the attorney is ready to handle. Eventually with sufficient first-hand trial and criminal litigation experience, successful AFDs will begin to handle their own cases and their careers progress accordingly.

10. This progression is not unique to the Plaintiff and is not a punishment or a reflection on performance. It is simply a result of the fact that first-hand court (including motions practice and especially trial) and client representation experience is a necessary part of attorney progression. This is especially important when representing criminal defendants.

11. Research & Writing Specialists are paid on the “GS” pay scale set by Congress for federal employees. True and accurate copies of the 2017 and 2018 GS Salary Charts for the Charlotte-Concord-NC-SC geographic area, along with Locality Pay Tables for Geographic Areas and other information regarding federal pay are publicly available at: <https://www.opm.gov/policy-data-oversight/pay-leave/pay-systems/general-schedule/>.

12. The GS pay structure applies to all the employees of the FDO-WDNC except for the Defender and the AFDs, who are in “unrated” positions. There is guidance generally determining when a GS employee is eligible for grade and step changes. The current Defender has never “skipped” an employee on the GS pay scale up several steps of pay at a time.

13. All the employees, whether in the GS system or not, of the FDO-WDNC are “at-will” employees who can be terminated by the Defender at any time. Employees may also resign at any time. There is no guarantee of continued employment for any of us.

14. On October 30, 2017, Plaintiff received a step increase from GS 14, Step 1 to GS 14, Step 2, which resulted in Plaintiff’s salary increasing from $101,929 to $105,327. GE A-6. This advancement from Step 1 to Step 2 is automatic unless the Defender affirmatively takes action to block the Step increase. The Defender did not take action to block the Plaintiff’s increase. There are 10 Steps [GS-14, step 1 through GS-14, step 10] within GS-14 before employees become eligible for a GS-15 position.

15. On January 8, 2018, Plaintiff received a cost of living increase bringing her salary to $107,319. GE A-6.

16. In May of 2018, at the time Plaintiff raised the issue of being promoted to GS-15, the guidelines for promotion to GS-15 stated that 10 years of experience in the federal GS system is required to be eligible for promotion to GS-15. Plaintiff had slightly less than 4 years’ federal government employment at that time, about 9 months of which was with the FDO-WDNC.

Reclassification

17. On August 20, 2018, at Plaintiff's request, Plaintiff was reclassified from Research & Writing Specialist to an AFD. GE A-7 is a true and accurate copy of the reclassification request, submitted to the DSO on or about August 16, 2018. The office's other Research & Writing Specialist was also reclassified at the time.

18. A move from a Research & Writing Specialist position to an AFD is considered to be a promotion on a long-term basis, even though it may not come with immediate compensation increases or responsibilities. Unlike Research & Writing Specialists, AFDs have direct exposure to the U.S. Government and its many resources (i.e. our opposing party), and all that entails. They face the challenges of dealing directly with sophisticated government agencies involved in the criminal justice system like the FBI. Research & Writing is often a key part of the job, but the advocacy and trial exposure on behalf of a client is the crux of the position. A true and accurate copy of the job description for Assistant Federal Defender is attached as GE A-8.

19. As noted above, the compensation for the Research & Writing Specialist position was governed by the GS for federal employees. In contrast, AFD positions are governed by a different pay structure for "ungraded" employees known as the AD system. Other differences between the two positions are significant.

- a. Different Pay Structures. Research & Writing Specialists, although they are lawyers, are classified as a "support" function, and are paid according to the DOCS Manual under the GS pay scale. GE A-2b, § 3(B)(1). AFDs are paid on an "ungraded" basis at "[p]ay rates not to exceed those paid to individuals of similar qualifications, experience, and responsibilities in the Office of the United States Attorney (USAO) for the same district." GE A-8 § E.
- b. Pay Difference: The AFD position has a much greater long-term pay potential. Employees operating under the GS system cap out at $158,811.00. On the other hand, an AFD caps out at $161,288.00 based on the current pay structures. However, at the beginning of the AFD's career, the pay scale is lower than that of a GS employee with Plaintiff's level of experience at the time.
- c. Time to Max Out Pay: It takes an attorney starting as a GS 14, step 1 twenty years to reach the maximum pay amount under the GS. In AFD positions, it only takes nine years to max out pay. In other words, the pay scale is higher, long term, for AFDs than for GS employees.

- d. Career Progression: Additionally, serving as an AFD is typically viewed as a more prestigious position. Those in the AFD position—as opposed to the Research & Writing position-- can serve in a broader range of capacities, including eventually handling direct trial and appellate work. As noted, Research & Writing Attorneys are not permitted to handle their own cases, or to appear in court without another attorney except for occasional minor procedural motions hearings. In my experience, Research and Writing Attorneys have been offered that transfer take the offer because of (1) the greater maximum pay as an AFD as opposed to a GS employee, (2) the accelerated movement to the maximum pay as an AFD, and (3) the greater professional opportunities and prestige as an AFD. Not all Research & Writing Specialists are offered the AFD position. Some of them are offered it, but only after several years of experience as a Research & Writing Specialist.

20. As mentioned, the reclassification from Research & Writing Specialist to AFD required Plaintiff to move from the GS system to an “ungraded” AD pay system. Because the rules for calculating salaries differ between the two systems, adjustments had to be made to ensure Plaintiff did not have to take a pay decrease because of the transition.

21. In August of 2018 at the time of the transition, Plaintiff as a Research & Writing Specialist was making a salary of $107,319.00 per year. Under the ungraded AD System, with Plaintiff’s 1 year of service in the FDO-WDNC, plus her prior experience in clerkships and the Supreme Court fellowship, the Defender could have set Plaintiff’s salary between $66,254.00 and $101,036.00. The absolute maximum the Defender was permitted to pay Plaintiff under the ungraded AD System would have been $101,038.00 (including locality pay) per year, which would have resulted in an annual pay decrease of $6,319.00 for the Plaintiff.

22. The Defender had a choice of reclassifying Plaintiff with the maximum AD salary of $101,038.00 (which included 16.21% locality enhancement for the Charlotte, NC area) for an AFD, or to use a “Red Circle Rule” in the DOCS Manual. Under the Red Circle Rule, the Defender, in his discretion, is authorized to compensate a reclassified employee like Plaintiff the same amount the employee previously earned under the GS scale. The Defender instructed that I apply the Red Circle Rule in Plaintiff’s case, which resulted in Plaintiff continuing to receive $107,319.00 (locality pay included), and which was above the top of the GS salary range and the maximum the Defender was authorized to pay Plaintiff. Attached as GE A-9 is a true and accurate copy of the Request for Personnel Action submitted wherein the Defender’s instructed me to ensure Plaintiff’s salary remained at $107,319.00.

Appellate Position

23. On July 25, 2018, the FDO-WDNC advertised an Appellate Position for an AFD. The following day, the Defender sent out an e-mail to all FDO-WDNC employees providing the job description and additional information about the position stating, in part, “This AFD will be stationed in Charlotte. Like Jared and [Plaintiff], the new position will divide time between providing support for the trial teams and assisting with our appellate and post-conviction practice.” A true and accurate copy of the job posting is attached as GE A-10a, and a true and accurate copy of the e-mail sent by the Defender to the FDO-WDNC is attached as GE A-10b.

24. As a result of prior Sequestration and uncertain budgets, that Appellate AFD position was going to be filled as a “term” position. As a term position, the Appellate AFD position was only for a period of one year and one day.

25. At that time Plaintiff was already in a long-term position, soon to be reclassified as an AFD position, with no specific ending date. It would have been detrimental to Plaintiff for her to move from a permanent position to a term position with a finite end date. Because Plaintiff was already in a long-term position that was imminently being reclassified as an AFD position, there was no reason for her to apply for or interview for the term position. Basically, she would have already had a better version of the position for which she was applying.

26. Junior-level AFDs are generally given “hybrid” responsibilities between the trial and appellate divisions, so the FDO-WDNC can determine which track suits their skills and interests best. Sometimes, there is a need for one or the other. Other times there is a need for an AFD to remain in the “hybrid” category depending on the type of work and the make-up of the office at any given time.

27. At the time the position was advertised, it was anticipated that there would be enough work in the Charlotte office to support three additional AFD’s if the Research & Writing Specialists were reclassified: (1) Plaintiff; (2) the other attorney who was reclassified at the same time as Plaintiff; and (3) the person who would fill the advertised term position.

28. Like all AFD positions, these had to be requested from, authorized by, and approved by the local Defender, the Circuit, and the DSC. GE A-2b § 3(B)(2). All 3 of the positions were authorized.

29. A true and accurate copy of the offer letter sent to the candidate who ultimately accepted the position is attached as GE A-11. The letter identifies the position as a “Term (Year and one day)” position. That individual’s pay was not subject to the “Red Circle Rule” and was accordingly in keeping with the pay structure applicable to AFDs. Even though the woman who filled that position had more experience than Plaintiff, she was paid less than Plaintiff because of the Defender's ability and decision to apply the Red Circle Rule to Plaintiff.

Work Space

30. As Administrative Officer, I am and have been responsible for the physical facilities within the FDO-WDNC for many years.

31. When determining where employees are placed within the FDO-WDNC and the size of each employee's workspace, the FDO-WDNC complies with the General Services Administration's ("GSA") Space Planning Guide. The GSA is a governmental agency responsible for all government leasing.

32. Research & Writing Specialists, like paralegals and other categories of employees, are designated 150 square feet of rentable space. Larger offices and most offices with windows are reserved for the Defender, the AFDs, and certain senior-level staff.

33. Specifically in anticipation of Plaintiff's hire and in July of 2017 before she started work, the FDO-WDNC spent nearly $10,000 to renovate a former File Room and convert it into a comfortable office large enough to hold two employees. True and accurate copies of the invoices for this upfit are attached as GE A-12. The space has never been a "utility," "storage," or any other type of "closet" since the conversion in July of 2017.

34. In compliance with the GSA Space Planning guidelines, when Plaintiff began working, she was placed in this shared, partitioned interior office with one other employee. Privacy panels were erected between the two workspaces. Photographs of that office are attached as GE A-13a (Overview of entire office) and GE A-13b (Plaintiff's specific portion of the office). The office had 396 square feet, was well lighted, fully furnished, and complied with North Carolina building code and occupancy requirements.

35. In late August of 2018, Plaintiff was provided a private office when one became available and when she became an AFD, which, coincidentally, both happened around the same time. A true and accurate copy of my e-mail to her regarding the new office is attached as GE-A14a Plaintiff never moved into that office, nor did she respond to my e-mail. A true and accurate photograph of Plaintiff's AFD office is attached as GE A-14b.

36. Rather than move into her new office as expected, Plaintiff came to clean out her personal belongings from the FDO-WDNC while everyone else in the office was at an office retreat in October of 2018. Plaintiff was asked, but not required, to attend the retreat but chose not to respond either way as to her intent.

Telework

37. In 2017 and up to the present (except during the coronavirus pandemic), the FDO-WDNC did not authorize telework; however, at Plaintiff's request on or about August 17, 2018, the Defender authorized Plaintiff to telework as she requested. The Defender advised me of this authorization at that time.

38. Others have requested telework in the past but, until coronavirus in 2020, it has never been permitted on any long-term basis. I would be the person who would handle any paperwork associated with teleworking.

39. Attached as GE A-15a is a true and accurate copy of the Plaintiff's telework agreement, which I personally sent to Plaintiff on September 10, 2018, via e-mail. Plaintiff returned the completed agreement to me on October 2, 2018 after prompting from me. A copy of the e-mail correspondence with Plaintiff is attached as GE A-15b.

40. The telework agreement clearly states that "[e]ither management or the employee may terminate participation in telework at any time." Plaintiff could have returned to her duty station in the Charlotte office at any time but chose to continue to telework. She was never "forced" to telework, and her private office was available to her at any time.

41. In the telework agreement, Plaintiff stated she was working from her home in [REDACTED] NC. [REDACTED] is approximately 90 miles from Charlotte. Plaintiff did not inform me, as the Office Administrator, of her move outside the Charlotte area. Her address was never changed or updated in our personnel system by her or anyone else and was always listed as a Charlotte address.

42. Plaintiff did submit a "Health Benefits Election Form" on April 3, 2018 requesting to add her future spouse to her health insurance effective April 28, 2018, due to a change in marital status on April 28, 2018. The address listed for her future spouse was identified as a Post Office Box in [REDACTED] North Carolina. [REDACTED] is an unincorporated town approximately 1-2 miles away from [REDACTED] North Carolina. A true and accurate copy of the Health Benefits Election Form is attached as GE A-16.

43. Additionally, since Plaintiff was teleworking from a location outside of the Charlotte metropolitan area, she technically was no longer eligible for the locality adjustment. Since the telework was always intended to be temporary, the Defender chose not to remove that locality adjustment and continued to pay her the adjustment.

44. The closest cities to [REDACTED] NC with federal courthouses are Asheville, NC (approximately 35 miles away) and Greenville/Spartanburg SC (each approximately 30 miles away). None of those geographic locations have locality adjustments.

45. Employees frequently approach us requesting transfers to the Asheville office. It is a sought-after location, and AFDs senior to Plaintiff have asked that we consider allowing them to move in the unlikely event a full-time AFD opening arises in Asheville. We do not and have not had physical space in that office to accommodate these requests. In fact, the interns who are hired in the summer share an office with the Defender, who uses it when he works in Asheville. There is also significantly more work in Charlotte so most of our attorneys are needed in Charlotte.

No Adverse Employment Actions Taken Against Plaintiff

46. As Administrative Officer, I had responsibility for processing any adverse personnel action against Plaintiff. Based upon my knowledge as Administrative Officer, neither the Defender nor any other individual took any adverse action against Plaintiff at any time. There are also no “performance improvement plans” or other performance-related issues documented in her personnel file.

47. Plaintiff took five days of sick leave during the Summer of 2018. The Defender instructed that I ensure these days be restored to her sick leave, which I did. Plaintiff was paid the entire period of her employment, including those days, which were categorized as paid “administrative leave” days. None of those days counted against any of her leave entitlements. True and accurate copies of her notifications of those sick leave dates are attached as GE A-17.

48. Plaintiff never received a pay decrease, including her locality adjustment. Her salary remained at the maximum level permitted commensurate with her experience and years of service through the end of her employment.

Plaintiff’s Departure from FDO-WDNC

49. On March 22, 2019, I received an automatically generated e-mail from the Administrative Office of the Courts indicating that Plaintiff had transferred within the judiciary effective March 18, 2019. This was the first and only notification I received indicating that Plaintiff would no longer be working at the FDO-WDNC. A true and accurate copy of that e-mail is attached as GE A-18.

Office Diversity

50. As one of the three initial employees of the Public Defenders' organizations in the WDNC, both the FDO and the Community Defenders' Office, which served as the FDO's predecessor, I have had the opportunity to see the growth and development of the office under multiple leadership teams. I have also had the opportunity to view the commitment to diversity that the Defender and his predecessors have prioritized.

51. The FDO-WDNC goes above and beyond seeking diversity by recruiting diverse candidates, advertising with both the Hispanic Bar (HNBA), and the National Bar Association (NBA), encouraging staff to promote job openings to diverse candidates, intentionally hosting diverse interns whenever possible, and employing other methods of attracting diverse employees as they arise. It is and has always been a very central and important part of the current Defender's overall objectives for the office.

52. The FDO-WDNC currently has 40 employees. Of those employees we have:
- a. 29 female employees and 11 male employees.
 - b. 21 diverse employees (as that term is defined by the AOC) and 19 non-diverse (Caucasian) employees.
 - c. 13 female attorney employees and 7 male attorney employees.

53. I have never heard the Defender or anyone else in the office use derogatory language based on gender. Since his appointment in August of 2017, the current Defender has hired 11 employees, of whom 9 are women and 2 are men. Five of the nine women are attorneys, along with both men.

54. I have never heard or seen the Defender, the First Assistant, or anyone else in the office speak in an inappropriate way to any employee, including the Plaintiff. I have never witnessed any sexual harassment or discrimination of any kind in our office, nor have I witnessed any retaliation. No employee has ever reported to me, as the human resources contact for the FDO-WDNC or otherwise, any type of harassment, discrimination, or retaliation they have witnessed or experienced in the FDO-WDNC.

55. I have never witnessed any inappropriate interactions between any employees, nor have I witnessed any gender-based (or any protected-category based) comments or actions in the FDO-WDNC at any time. The atmosphere at the office is very professional. We all work hard as a team and are very respectful to each other.

DEFENDER ORGANIZATION CLASSIFICATION SYSTEM

GENERAL INFORMATION AND DEFINITION OF KEY TERMS

L Introduction

A. Purpose

This section, the General Information and Definition of Key Terms, provides Federal Public and Community Defender Organizations with general information concerning the authorities, responsibilities and processes associated with the appointment and compensation of graded personnel.¹ Key terms are defined and personnel management policy statements are included.

B. Key Definitions

DOCS: the Defender Organization Classification System. The DOCS is the personnel classification system for defender organizations.

FDOs: Federal Public and Community Defender Organizations are collectively referred to as FDOs, federal defender organizations, or defender organizations.

AOUSC: the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

DSC: the Judicial Conference Committee on Defender Services.

ODS: the Office of Defender Services, AOUSC.

OHR: the Office of Human Resources, AOUSC.

USAO: the Office of the United States Attorney.

JSP: the Judiciary Salary Plan.

¹Position descriptions for defender organization attorneys (ungraded personnel) are included in the DOCS Manual as a matter of convenience. As noted in Section III.B.2 herein, policies and procedures associated with the appointment and compensation of attorneys are found in ODS policy memoranda. Examples of the most recent memoranda are included in Section 2 for reference. Updated memoranda concerning salary charts are sent by ODS to Defenders on an annual basis.

C. Additional References

FDOs should consult the Guide to Judiciary Policy (Guide), Volume 12, Human Resources, for additional information on judiciary personnel policies.

FDOs should also consult the Federal Defender Operations Manual, Chapter 11 (Personnel), for comprehensive information regarding personnel policies and procedures.

II. Appointment and Compensation of Personnel: Statutory Authority

A. General

The Criminal Justice Act (18 U.S.C. § 3006A) grants Federal Public Defenders the authority to appoint attorneys and other personnel.

B. Federal Public Defender Organizations (FPDOs)

The Federal Public Defender (FPD) appoints full-time attorneys in such numbers as approved by the circuit court of appeals (18 U.S.C. § 3006A (g)(2)(A)), and by the Judicial Conference Committee on Defender Services (DSC). The FPD may also appoint non-attorney personnel as authorized by the DSC.

The FPD may fix the compensation of attorneys and other personnel at rates not to exceed those paid to individuals of similar qualifications, experience, and responsibilities in the Office of the United States Attorney (USAO) for the same district. (see the Guide, Volume 7, Defender Services.)

C. Community Defender Organizations (CDOs)

Although not statutorily mandated, the DSC considers the authority of the CDO Executive Director comparable to that of the Federal Public Defender with respect to the appointment and compensation of personnel. Throughout DOCS, the term Defender or Federal Defender refers to the head of a FDO.

The DSC annually approves federal grants for CDOs. The receipt and use of grant funds is subject to the conditions set forth in the Grant and Conditions. (See the Guide, Volume 7, Part A, Chapter 4 and its Appendix.) Approval of a CDO grant by the DSC is based on the assumption that the CDO follows judiciary policies regarding appointment and compensation of personnel. DOCS, therefore, applies to CDOs.

Clause 15 of the Grant and Conditions requires a CDO to:

- provide its employees with written personnel policies and other terms and conditions of employment;

- furnish the ODS a copy of said policies and any subsequent changes thereto;
- notify the ODS of the intent to fill a personnel vacancy.

III. Development and Contents of DOCS

A. Purpose and Development of DOCS

DOCS was developed to provide FDOs with a variety of positions that are comparable, in scope of responsibility and pay levels, to those used by the USAOs while meeting the unique needs of a defender organization. The needs of a 100-person office are quite different from those of a four- to six- person office. DOCS was designed to allow a Defender to structure his or her organization and select positions for the most effective office operations.

Prior to the implementation of DOCS, the positions available to FDOs were very limited. The duties and responsibilities included in the original position descriptions (written in the late 1960s or early 1970s) no longer accurately reflected the tasks performed by defender personnel. Additionally, the grade levels were not comparable to those of the USAO or other judiciary positions. Further, the rapid growth of the federal defender program combined with the divestiture of authority from the AOUSC to Defenders, redefined the role of many positions in defender operations. Changes in the nature of the practice of criminal law, increased Congressional oversight, and additional accountability and reporting requirements highlighted the limitations of the original position descriptions and emphasized the need for updated and expanded position descriptions.

Beginning in 1990, Defender organization personnel developed DOCS to meet the changing needs of all defender organizations. In May 1993, the FDOs adopted DOCS as the personnel classification system. In 1995, a DOCS Expert Panel, consisting of FDO Defenders and staff, was formed to review and recommend revisions to the DOCS positions descriptions. The groups' efforts are ongoing.

An 18-month Study on Compensation in Federal Defender Organizations was undertaken in 2008. The Study analyzed and compared the compensation levels and benefits of both graded and ungraded positions in Federal Defender Organizations (FDOs) to compensation levels and benefits in U.S. attorneys' offices (USAOs) to ensure parity at all levels. The study concluded in December 2009 when the contractor, Human Resources Research Organization, assisted ODS in presenting the study recommendations to the Defender Services Committee.

Overall, the Study found that:

- FDO compensation is in compliance with 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(g)(2)(A).
- There are no major deficiencies with FDO compensation policies or patterns of over-compensation in FDOs relative to United States attorneys' offices.
- There is a considerable degree of parity for attorney and graded compensation systems.
- There are several policies that allow United States attorneys' offices to compensate their employees at higher levels than FDOs can provide.

The DOCS Expert Panel, which served as the primary source of specialized knowledge for the contractor and ODS during the study, considered the study findings and defender comments in August 2009. The DOCS Expert Panel submitted its recommendations to the Performance Measurement Working Group (PMWG) and the Defender Services Advisory Group (DSAG). At their meetings in September and October 2009, respectively, the PMWG and the DSAG endorsed the recommendations, which were then submitted for consideration by the Defender Services Committee's Long-Range Planning and Education Subcommittee. The Subcommittee endorsed the recommendations at its meeting in October 2009.

The full Defender Services Committee (the Committee) considered and endorsed the study recommendations at its meeting in December 2009.

The DOCS Expert Panel and ODS undertook the substantive work needed to implement the recommendations and reissue an updated DOCS in December 2010.

B. Categorization of DOCS Positions

1. Graded Positions

a. General

To facilitate ODS's tracking of DSC-authorized positions, ODS has grouped the graded DOCS positions into six major categories according to type of positions (see below). FDOs are generally authorized several positions in each of the six DOCS categories.

The six ODS position categories are: Research and Writing/Paralegal; Investigator/Interpreter; Administrative; Information Technology; Legal Secretarial; and Office Support. The individual DOCS positions in each category are listed below:

b. One-of-a-Kind Positions

The functions of several DOCS positions are considered unique, and only one such position is available to each organization. The positions that are limited to one per organization are identified in the DOCS description definitions as one-of-a-kind.

c. National Support Positions

In order to economize, certain DOCS positions provide centralized support to all FDOs on a national program level. These positions are assigned to individual defender offices, yet support all FDOs. Position descriptions for these national support positions are contained in the DOCS in a reserved chapter available only through ODS. FDOs hosting national positions should consult with ODS regarding the DOCS title, grade level and position description prior to advertising or filling a national position.

d. Legal Interns

FDOs regularly hire law students or recent law school graduates to assist with legal research, writing, and case preparation. The DSC does not specifically authorize these positions. Legal Interns are only hired as temporary employees. The Legal Intern position is often incorrectly referred to as a Law Clerk. The title Law Clerk is reserved for high-level positions on a judge's staff. Legal Intern is the correct title for the defender organization position. The Legal Intern position description is included in DOCS. An individual who has passed the bar cannot be placed in a Legal Intern position.

2. Ungraded (Attorney) Positions

The Federal Defender and all assistant federal defenders are considered ungraded positions. Salaries for these attorney positions are not based on the Judiciary Salary Plan (JSP) grade and step tables used to calculate salaries of graded personnel.

Position descriptions for the various AFD positions are included in the DOCS Manual as a matter of convenience. The AFD position descriptions contain a general explanation of the duties and activities associated with AFDs, based on those of the USAO. These position descriptions should be used as guidelines. Policies and procedures related to the appointment and compensation of AFDs, and applicable salary charts, are sent to FDOs by the ODS in the form of policy memoranda and updates to Tab 2 of this manual. The individual memoranda and Tab 2 should be replaced as they are updated by ODS.

The number of authorized ungraded positions is also tracked by ODS.

3. Supervisory Positions

a. Supervisory Responsibilities

Listed below are the types of responsibilities generally performed by supervisors who are either attorneys or graded employees. With few exceptions, supervisors meet the technical qualifications of the positions they supervise. They may have line responsibilities in addition to providing, on a daily basis, the technical and administrative supervision of employees who are performing a particular job function or functions. Technical supervision generally relates to the abilities associated with the functional responsibilities, e.g., technical proficiency in using interviewing techniques to obtain factual information from witnesses as an Investigator or applying the principles of financial accounting as a Financial Administrator. Administrative supervision generally relates to the ability to select, direct, develop, reward, and retain qualified people to perform their work.

Employees holding supervisory positions generally perform the following list of supervisory tasks:

- 1) Plan work to be accomplished by subordinates, including setting and adjusting priorities and deadlines, and distributing and balancing the workload among employees.
- 2) Assign work to subordinates.
- 3) Evaluate work performance of subordinates by keeping in touch with the status and progress of work and maintaining records of accomplishments.
- 4) Give advice or assist with work in progress. Approve, revise, or reject completed work.
- 5) Interview and recommend candidates for vacant positions, identify training needs and conduct on-the-job training, establish performance standards consistent with job description, and recommend salary increases, promotions and awards for subordinate employees.
- 6) Hear and resolve subordinates' concerns or complaints, assist with problems when possible, and recommend and, as authorized, implement disciplinary actions when required.

- 7) Develop or accept recommendations from subordinates to increase productivity or quality.
- 8) Keep subordinates informed of the policies and procedures of the organization and make sure they are followed.
- 9) Approve leave in accordance with personnel policies.
- 10) Inform employees of available services and employee activities.
- 11) Report to the next level supervisor on performance, progress, and training needs, and on behavior or performance problems. Provide information to the next level supervisor as requested concerning promotions, reassignments, recognition, and personnel needs.
- 12) Facilitate and participate in annual performance reviews of subordinate employees.

Some supervisors may also be assigned budgetary or personnel responsibilities for the staff that they supervise.

IV. DSC-Authorized Positions for FDOs

A. Process for Obtaining Positions: Resource Requirements, Budget Requests, Supplemental Requests

Annually, FDOs are required to submit resource requirements to ODS for the fiscal year commencing several months in the future. For example, in February 2010, FDOs submitted resource requirements for FY 2011.

The information submitted includes a projected caseload for the upcoming fiscal year. The current year FTE levels and the projected caseload in the budget year are used to calculate an attorney and non-attorney FTE ceiling for each organization. If an organization requests any positions above the calculated FTE ceiling, justification must be provided for consideration by the Defender Services Budget Subcommittee (DSBS). The DSBS forwards a recommendation to the Defender Services Committee for each individual organization's budget and FTE ceiling for the upcoming fiscal year.

Once FDOs receive their yearly budgets, they are required to submit a monthly Electronic Status of Funds Report (ESFR) which shows projected surpluses or shortfalls. FDOs may submit requests for supplemental positions or funding for a specific case, or for a sudden increase in caseload, etc. Approval for supplemental requests is based on the justification submitted, the availability of funds and the guidelines established by the Defender Services Committee.

B. Obtaining DSC Approval

Resource requests are reviewed by ODS. Questions or concerns regarding the budget request are discussed with the Federal Defender/Executive Director or Administrative Officer. Once a year, the Defender Services Committee's Budget Subcommittee meets to review FDO budgets for the upcoming fiscal year, and forwards a recommendation to the Defender Services Committee for its consideration. The recommended budgets must fall within the Defender Services' Financial Plan as approved by the Executive Committee of the Judicial Conference. The approved financial plan is based upon funding appropriated by Congress to Defender Services.

FPDO requests for new attorney positions must be approved by each Circuit. (CDO new attorney requests do not require Circuit approval.) After Circuit approval is obtained, all new attorney positions must also be approved by the ODS prior to an offer of employment being made (for both FPDOs and CDOs).

C. Changes to DSC-Authorized Positions

1. General: FDOs may find it necessary to change an authorized position to a different position. The types of changes are indicated below. The ODS tracks the number of positions authorized by the DSC according to district and position category (described in Section III.B.1.a. above).
2. Effecting Change: The ODS must approve changes to DSC-authorized positions. All requests to ODS for approval of personnel actions must include a statement that the FDO has sufficient funding to support the requested action. If additional funding is required, the request must be submitted to the DSC for approval, as described in Section IV.B. above.

FPDOs must submit to the Office of Human Resources (OHR) an AO-193, Request for Personnel Action form, or its electronic equivalent using remote data entry (RDE), to effect either a reclassification or a mixed-function position. CDOs are not required to submit additional paperwork.

3. Reclassification

A reclassification changes the title of an existing filled position to one that more closely describes the duties that are actually performed by the employee.

For example, a Defender has determined that a Legal Assistant is actually performing the duties associated with a Case Management Assistant, and s/he should reclassify the position accordingly. The category would change from Legal Assistant to Office Support.

ODS's prior written approval is required to reclassify an authorized position. The "Nature of Action" or NOA Code which FPDOs must submit to the OHR to effect this reclassification is 984. ODS's written approval should be attached to the reclassification request when submitted to OHR. (CDOs are not required to submit additional paperwork, but must obtain ODS written approval to reclassify a position.)

4. Mixed-Function Position

A mixed-function position combines the primary functions of two (or more) different DOCS positions, and may change the total number of authorized positions in two (or more) categories.

For example, an organization has been authorized four legal assistant positions and six paralegal positions, and the Defender determines that one paralegal is actually performing as 50% legal assistant and 50% paralegal. After requesting and receiving the ODS's written approval, the Defender could create such a mixed-function position, which would result in a change in authorized positions to 4.5 legal assistant and 5.5 paralegal.

Please refer to Sections V.C. and VI.B.2. below for additional information concerning mixed-function positions.

5. Exception to Approval Requirement

There are certain "series" of DOCS positions which are so similar in nature that prior ODS approval is not required to reclassify positions within those series. These series are in three categories: Paralegal, Investigator and Legal Assistant positions.

An organization that is authorized one or more of these positions may appoint a new employee to any of the DOCS positions within the series for which s/he qualifies. The organization may also reclassify an existing employee to a different position in the same series without ODS approval.

For example, a Defender may determine that an Assistant Investigator meets the qualifications for, and is actually performing as, an Investigator. The Defender may reclassify the Assistant Investigator to Investigator. Or, the Defender may wish to reclassify a Legal Assistant to the position of Secretary to the First Assistant Defender, and s/he may do so without prior ODS approval.

Please note, however, that to reclassify a Legal Assistant as Administrative Secretary, or vice versa, ODS approval is required, because these two classifications fall into different categories of positions. Please refer to Section III.B.1.a., and the listing of DOCS position categories, above.

V. Appointing Personnel

A. Determining Qualifications

The Defender, or his/her designee, is responsible for determining the qualifications of prospective employees and ensuring that personnel employed by the organization meet the DOCS qualifications for the positions to which they are appointed. The Defender is the appointing authority, and that authority may not be delegated.

A careful review must be made of the applicant's education, training and work experience, and a determination made of the highest-grade level for which the individual qualifies. Although the Defender may appoint at a lower grade than the highest grade for which an applicant qualifies (for reasons such as funding constraints, a desire to evaluate the individual's performance for a certain period of time, etc.), this is not recommended. The decision to appoint at a lower grade and promote at a later date will not entitle the employee to retroactive compensation at the higher rate. Taking future actions to properly compensate an employee who was initially appointed at a lower level than that for which s/he qualified is very difficult.

Generally, individuals are appointed at the first step in a grade level. However, in order to compete successfully for the services of a quality applicant, a Defender may consider it necessary to either match the current salary or other offer received by that applicant. Please refer to the Guide, Volume 12, Chapter 6.

If the Defender erroneously sets the entrance grade lower than that for which the employee qualifies, the Defender may, at any time, request prospective promotion to the highest eligible grade. Likewise, if a Defender determines that an existing employee's grade was improperly established, the Defender may, at any time, request prospective promotion to the highest eligible grade. That promotion becomes effective in the first pay period subsequent to the date of the promotion request, and cannot be made retroactive.

General descriptions of the different types of qualifying experience are provided below.

1. Qualification Standards

Qualification standards are considered the minimum level of knowledge, skill and/or ability. Certification or education requirements for professionals (e.g. attorneys, interpreters) must be job related.

2. General Work Experience

General work experience refers to the minimum entry-level qualifications that demonstrate the applicant's ability to acquire knowledge and skills necessary to function within a position. General work experience cannot be credited as specialized experience.

3. Specialized Work Experience

These elements are related directly to the duties of the position. This is experience required for above entry-level work. General work experience requirements and any minimum educational, licensure, or other special qualification requirements and selective factors established for the position must be met first. Specialized work experience must demonstrate the knowledge, skill, and ability (KSAs) necessary for successful job performance. When an applicant meets the experience requirement for a specific DOCS grade level, s/he also meets the experience requirements for lower grade levels in that position, as well as other similar DOCS positions at lower grade levels.

4. Selective Placement Factors

Selective placement factors are the elements considered above minimum requirements, and are based on special circumstances of knowledge required. These elements do not alter minimum qualification standards. Licensure or certification and language fluency are examples of selective placement factors. Language fluency may be considered a minimum qualification for a position, depending upon cultural circumstances. Selective placement factors cannot be substituted for general or specialized experience requirements.

5. Creditability

Creditable work experience provides the individual with the knowledge, skills and abilities (KSAs) to perform the duties of the position. One year of creditable experience is gained through completion of either twelve months or 52 weeks of creditable work experience, whichever comes first.

6. Educational Substitutions

Education above the high school level may be substituted for a prescribed amount of general, or where noted, specialized experience as detailed in each position description. Unless otherwise provided, education may be substituted for experience only in full year increments of academic study for the prescribed number of years of general experience.

If an academic degree is used as a qualification for appointment at a particular grade level, all requirements for that degree must have been completed and the degree granted. The Defender is responsible for ensuring that the degree was actually granted.

7. Determination of Equivalence

Experience attained outside the federal system, or in ungraded federal positions, must be evaluated and equivocated to the appropriate federal grade level. This applies exclusively to service outside the federal system, or to service in ungraded federal positions. If a federal employee has attained the next lower grade in the federal service, determination of equivalency is not necessary.

Non-federal work experience is subject to varying interpretations of relative complexity. Such experience must be examined for general relevance to the position in question, level of responsibility and complexity, and salary level. All valuable experience and training, including experience and training gained in religious, civic, welfare, service, and organization activities should be considered in determining qualifications, regardless of whether or not compensation was received. Unpaid experience should be given as much credit as paid experience if it is valuable and pertinent to the position in question.

Part-time experience is prorated according to the relation it bears to a full workweek.

Education may also affect the determination of equivalency. The manner in which education may be substituted for required years of employment experience, either general or specialized, is detailed in each position description.

B. Job Sharing

Job sharing is available in DOCS, and the Federal Defender may appoint two (or more) persons to fill one full-time authorized position. The total hours worked by the individuals may not exceed the hours associated with one full-time position, or 40 hours per workweek.

FPDOs should note “job sharing” on the AO-193 form, or its electronic equivalent, that is submitted to OHR for processing. OHR will assign the same position number to all individuals who share that position, so that the 40-hour weekly work schedule per position is not exceeded.

CDOs should carefully track the hours of individuals in a job sharing situation to ensure that the authorized working hours per position/per workweek are not exceeded.

C. Mixed-Function Positions

Mixed-function positions combine the performance of two or more DOCS positions into one position. DOCS provides flexible staffing options by allowing a Defender to create mixed-function positions. Defenders may find it useful to combine some positions.

Only graded positions may be combined to form a mixed-function position. Defenders may not create positions that are part graded and part ungraded (e.g., Research & Writing Specialist/Assistant Federal Defender). This is not permitted because the positions are subject to different compensation systems and different placement and advancement policies. A mixture of graded and ungraded positions cannot be accommodated in one mixed-function position.

Generally speaking, one-of-a-kind positions cannot be combined with another position to create a mixed function position.

To ensure that the records are correct concerning the number and type of DSC-authorized positions, as described in Section IV. above, a written request to create a mixed-function position must be submitted to, and approved by the ODS prior to processing the personnel action to classify/reclassify the mixed-function position to assure that work is organized in an efficient and cost-effective manner, and that the skills and abilities of employees are used to the fullest extent possible. Assignment of work that results in a higher grade based on duties performed less than a majority of time generally is not efficient or cost-effective.

D. Position Reassignments

A Defender may reassign an employee from one authorized position to another authorized position, based on an assessment of the individual’s qualifications and the needs of the office. ODS approval is not required for this action.

For FPDOs, a Form AO-193, or its electronic equivalent, must be submitted to OHR to effect this change. CDOs should notify the ODS of any position reassignments, in accordance with Clause 15 of the Grant and Conditions agreement, which requires notification be given to the ODS prior to filling all personnel vacancies.

VI. Grade Levels

A. General

The grade levels of the DOCS positions are comparable to those in offices of United States Attorneys (USAOs). DOCS positions are graded according to the Federal Defender (FD) plan, which is identical to JSP and federal General Schedule (GS) positions.

B. Entry Level

1. Standard DOCS Positions

The first grade level on the Salary and Experience Scale (also referred to as the grade ladder) of each position is generally considered the minimum entry level for the position.

A professional internship is available in certain positions. A one- or two-year internship may be utilized. A Defender may hire into those positions, as an intern, an individual who does not possess the requisite years of specialized experience, at one or two grades lower than the minimum entry level for the position. The availability of internship is described in each position to which it applies.

2. Mixed-Function Positions

The proper grade of a mixed function position is determined by evaluation of the regularly assigned work which is paramount in the position. In most instances, the highest level work assigned to and performed by the employee for the majority of time is grade-determining. When the highest level of work is a smaller portion of the job, it may be grade-controlling only if:

- The work is officially assigned to the position on a regular and continuing basis;
- It is a significant and substantial part of the overall position (i.e., occupying at least 25 percent of the employee's time); and
- The higher level knowledge and skills needed to perform the work would be required in recruiting for the position if it became vacant.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND DEFINITION OF KEY TERMS

Defender Organization Classification System - DOCS

Work which is temporary or short-term, carried out only in the absence of another employee, performed under closer than normal supervision, or assigned solely for the purpose of training an employee for higher level work, cannot be considered paramount for grade level purposes.

The entry level of a mixed-function position is determined by the percentage of time spent performing each DOCS position function. The entry grade for the mixed function position is the entry grade for the highest graded DOCS job that is performed at least 25 percent of the time.

EXAMPLE:

Legal Assistant	Grades 6-8	60%
Asst. Paralegal	Grades 5-9	40%

The entry-level grade of the above mixed function Legal Assistant /Asst. Paralegal position would be 5.

C. Target Grade

1. Standard DOCS Positions

The highest grade on the Salary and Experience Scale of each DOCS position is the target grade for that position. The established target grade may not be exceeded under any circumstances; exceptions to this requirement are not available.

Please Note: Person-in-the-job increases, available prior to the implementation of DOCS, were used to upwardly adjust the grades of experienced individuals who had reached the target grades of their positions. These increases are no longer available to FDOs. DOCS provides an adequate variety of positions, at grade levels comparable to the USAO and JSP, to properly compensate all FDO graded personnel.

2. Mixed-Function Positions

The target grade of a mixed-function position is determined in the same manner as described for determining the entry grade of a mixed-function position.

EXAMPLE:

Legal Assistant	Grades 6-8	60%
Asst. Paralegal	Grades 5-9	40%

The target grade of the above mixed-function Legal Assistant /Asst. Paralegal position would be 9

Note: Although the Legal Assistant job progresses at the one-grade interval whereas the Assistant Paralegal job progresses at the two-grade interval, the Assistant Paralegal job is grade-determining. Therefore, the mixed function job is graded 5-7-9 following the Assistant Paralegal job's two-grade interval progression scheme. The qualifications requirements for each of the grades for the Assistant Paralegal and Legal Assistant positions should be reviewed to ensure the incumbent meets all general and specialized qualifications.

D. Saved Pay Plan

The Judicial Conference reinstated saved pay provisions for federal public defender and judiciary employees in September 2007. This plan provides that, under specific circumstances, a graded employee who is placed by management action into a different salary plan or pay table, or rehired/reclassified into a lower graded position, may continue to receive the same rate of basic pay as s/he would have received if s/he had remained in the former position. Under saved pay, an employee receives the same rate of pay that was received immediately before the reduction to the lower grade, but does not receive any step increases and receives a reduced employment cost index (ECI) rate until the employee's pay is overtaken by the regularly prescribed pay for the current position. For information concerning applicability of this policy in specific situations, FPDOs should contact OHR or consult the Guide, Volume 12, Chapter 6, §680; CDOs should contact the program duty officer in ODS.

E. Possible Overtime Pay Requirement for CDOs

CDOs may be required to pay overtime to certain nonexempt employees, in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), as well as state employment regulations. There are variations in Federal rules regarding overtime, and there are no uniform standards for states to use in defining nonexempt employees. ODS strongly recommends that the Defender and/or the Administrative Officer/Assistant in each CDO meet with a local Department of Labor representative to determine the liability of the organization with respect to overtime pay. The overtime pay requirement may affect a CDO's decisions with respect to setting grade levels and the advancement of graded personnel discussed in the following section. FPDOs are not legally permitted to pay overtime.

VII. Movement Within and Between Grade Levels

A. General

As noted in Section VI. A. above, employees in graded DOCS positions are compensated according to JSP grade levels that are identical to the GS levels of the USAO. Advancement within a grade, and between grade levels of DOCS positions, is administered in the same manner as for JSP positions. See the Guide, Volume 12, Human Resources. FPDOs must follow the Guide with respect to all salary-related personnel policies. Those same requirements are extended to CDOs whenever possible, to ensure consistency in compensation for FDO employees who perform similar functions in the two types of organizations.

B. Within-Grade Increases (WGIs)

1. Definition

A within-grade increase (WGI) is the advancement of an employee to the next higher step in the same grade. A WGI is also referred to as a step increase.

2. Eligibility

a. Waiting Period

The Within-Grade Increase Plan (see the Guide, Volume 12, Chapter 6, §665.40) provides that each full-time or part-time employee in steps 1 through 9 will be eligible for a WGI after the appropriate waiting period at the next lower step has been completed. FPDO personnel are required to meet the specified waiting period, and it is ODS policy that all CDO personnel are subject to the same requirements.

The waiting period begins on the date the employee was hired or the date the employee was promoted to the current grade, whichever is most recent. This month and day become the employee's anniversary date. The WGI date is the date on which an employee becomes eligible for a WGI, based on the following waiting periods: WGIs to steps 2, 3, or 4 require a 52-calendar week waiting period (approximately one year of service at the next lower step of the grade); WGIs to steps 5, 6, or 7 require a 104-calendar week waiting period (approximately two years); and WGIs to steps 8, 9, or 10, require a 156-calendar week waiting period (approximately three years) at the next lower step.

b. Performance

The AOUSC's personnel/payroll system is keyed to automatically grant WGIs to eligible FPDO employees on their WGI dates, unless they are specifically denied by the Defender for unacceptable performance, as discussed below, or a promotion is granted in lieu of a WGI. A WGI should be granted only if the employee has performed at an acceptable level of competence during the waiting period. The FPDO should generate a rating form for each graded employee from the AOUSC's personnel/payroll system for the Defender's action at least 90 days prior to the employee's WGI date. If the employee's performance is acceptable, the rating form should be completed and maintained in the local office personnel file.

CDOs should consider each employee's performance and determine that it is at the acceptable level prior to awarding WGI increases.

3. Denial of WGIs

If an employee is not performing at an acceptable level, the Defender may deny a WGI to the employee. To deny a WGI in a FPDO, the FPD must appropriately complete the rating form and return it to the AOUSC at least two weeks prior to the WGI date, to ensure that the employee does not receive the WGI automatically.

The Defender should give the employee written notice of any unacceptable rating, fully documenting the reasons for the denial of a WGI. If an employee whose performance level was determined unacceptable subsequently improves, the acceptable level may be certified as such by the Defender in any subsequent pay period and a WGI may then be awarded. Written notice to reinstate WGIs must be provided to the OHR. In such instances, the employee's WGI date will change to the date the WGI is awarded and the waiting period for eligibility for the next WGI will be calculated from that new date. WGIs may not be made retroactive.

CDOs also may deny a WGI to an employee whose performance is not acceptable. The employee should be given written notice of this action, which also should be fully documented in the employee's file. If performance improves and WGIs are reinstated by the CDO, it is recommended that the WGI date and eligibility waiting period be adjusted in the same manner as for FPDO employees.

C. Promotions

1. Definition

A promotion is the advancement of an employee from one grade to the next higher grade.

2. Eligibility

A promotion is available to an employee when: (a) the higher grade level has been previously authorized for the position, as per the DOCS position description; and (b) the employee has met the qualifications for promotion to that grade level. At the discretion of the Defender, a promotion may be awarded once an individual meets the requirements of the position for the next grade level, and completes the time-in-grade requirements. A promotion is not an entitlement; it should not be granted automatically simply because it is available. A promotion should be awarded only when the Defender determines that the employee's performance merits such recognition.

3. Anniversary Date Status

When a promotion is processed in conjunction with an employee's anniversary date, the anniversary date remains the same. However, if a promotion is authorized by an FPDO at any time other than on the anniversary date, the anniversary date will change to the date of the promotion, and the new WGI date waiting period begins as of that new date. CDOs should record anniversary dates and WGI waiting periods in the same manner.

4. Determining Proper Grade and Step for Promotions

When promoting an eligible employee to the next higher grade, the proper method for determining the employee's new step at that grade is as follows: Start with the employee's current grade and step, go two steps higher within the same grade and identify the salary amount for that step; then, at the next higher grade, find the lowest step at which the salary meets or exceeds that amount.

* The rate of pay payable at these steps is limited to the rate for Level III of the Executive Schedule, which is $165,300

EXAMPLE: To promote a Legal Assistant currently at the grade/step of 7/3:

- advance two steps to 7/5, note that the salary is $43,964
- find the lowest step at grade 8 that would meet or exceed that salary, which is 8/2, with a salary of $44,391.
- the correct promotion from grade/step 7/3 is to 8/2.

There are several situations in which this rule is modified:

If an individual is currently at step 9 or 10, it is not possible to perform the calculation as noted above. In those instances, determine the WGI value (which is the dollar difference between the steps in that grade), add that amount to the current salary twice; then proceed to the next grade to determine the proper step.

EXAMPLE: To promote a Legal Assistant at the 7/9 level to grade 8:

- The WGI value at 7/9 (the difference between the salaries paid at 7/9 and 7/10) is $1,293. Double that amount to $2,586.
- Add $2,586 to the current salary of $49,138, for a total of $51,724.
- find the lowest step at grade 8 that meets or exceeds that salary, (in this example it is step 8, with the salary of $52,981). The employee would be promoted from grade/step 7/9 to 8/8.

If a promotion is awarded on an individual's anniversary date, and if the employee is eligible for a WGI on that anniversary date (see Section VII. B. 2. a. above), the WGI should be added when calculating the grade/step for the promotion. In other words, identify the salary amount at three steps, rather than two, above the current step in determining the proper step at the next higher grade. Adding this additional step may, or may not, affect the new grade/step.

The following examples illustrate how promotions, awarded first on a non-anniversary and secondly on the anniversary date, would be determined for two individuals. In one situation, the result would change; in the other, it would not:

EXAMPLE:

Investigator John Smith has been at grade/step 11/6 for one year and eight months. Grade 12 is available in that position, and he meets the requirements for promotion to that grade. The Defender is promoting Smith to Grade 12 as of February 20. This is not his anniversary date, and because he has not completed the WGI waiting period at step 6 (which is approximately two years), he is not eligible for a WGI to step 7. Therefore, to calculate: advance two steps, from 11/6 to 11/8 ($70,801), then to the lowest step at grade 12 that meets or exceeds that salary, which is 12/2 ($71,102). But, if the Defender delays the promotion until June 20 (Smith's anniversary date and the date he completes the 104-week waiting period at step 6), he is eligible for a WGI to an 11/7, then up two steps to 11/9 ($72,714), and the correct promotion then would be to 12/3 ($73,396).

EXAMPLE:

Research and Writing Specialist Mary Jones, grade/step 12/3, is being promoted on a non-anniversary date. Advance to 12/5 ($77,983), then promote to the 13/1 level ($81,823). For Ms. Jones, an anniversary-date promotion would result in the same new grade/step: 12/3 to 12/4, then to 12/6 ($80,276), and the promotion to 13/1 ($81,823).

D. Quality Step Increases (QSIs)

The judiciary's Quality Step Increase (QSI) Program was designed to recognize and reward, on a continuing basis, employees who maintain outstanding performance. The QSI program was approved for graded personnel by the Judicial Conference at its 1976 session; but QSIs were suspended for all personnel in Fiscal Year 1993. At its March 1998 session, the Judicial Conference granted federal defenders the authority to reinstate QSIs for graded employees in their organizations, to the same extent and within the same constraints as the offices of United States Attorneys. The policy for granting QSIs can be found in the Federal Defender Operations Manual.

E. Awards

The awards program set forth in the Guide to Judiciary Policy for court employees specifically excludes FPDs. The awards available to FDO employees are Quality Step Increases (QSIs), which are discussed above, and Time-Off and On-the-Spot Awards, discussed in this section.

In December 2009, the Defender Services Committee approved the establishment of an FDO awards program to implement Time-Off and On-the-Spot Awards for employees of FDOs, comparable to awards available to employees of USAOs.

The policy for granting awards can be found in the Federal Defender Operations Manual.

As set forth in the Guide, Volume 12, Chapter, 6, §660.30, the aggregate pay for any FDO employee may not exceed the salary of a district court judge.

F. Demotions

A demotion is a change to a lower grade, based upon an employee's unsatisfactory job performance. Should this type of action be necessary, please refer to the Guide, Volume 12, Chapter 6, §645.60.

VIII. Exceptions to DOCS Requirements

A. General

Although DOCS positions will continue to be reviewed and revised as appropriate, requests for exceptions are anticipated. All requests for exceptions will be considered; however, exceptions will be granted only in truly unusual circumstances or when the proposed exception points out a problem with a DOCS position or policy that should be corrected in the next revision of that position description.

B. Process for Obtaining Approvals for Exception Requests

A written request for exception should be sent to the ODS, fully detailing the reason(s) for the request. The ODS will evaluate the request. The ODS will promptly distribute the request and the ODS evaluation to the DOCS Expert Panel. The request will be considered, and a determination will be made. Written approval will be forwarded to the requesting Defender as soon as possible. If the exception request is denied, a written explanation will be provided to the Defender.

IX. Updating and Revising DOCS

A. Identifying Need for New Positions Or Revisions to Existing Policies

As the priorities and requirements of the federal defender program change in future years, DOCS will be subject to review and revision. If a Defender, or group of Defenders and/or Administrators, believes there is a need to create a new DOCS position, or a series of positions, a detailed proposal should be submitted to the ODS. The ODS will evaluate the request, and consult with the Executive Office for United States Attorneys (EOUSA) to determine whether a comparable position, or series of positions, exists in the USAOs. All suggestions for new DOCS positions and the ODS evaluation will be forwarded to the DOCS Expert Panel for further action. The ODS and the DOCS Expert Panel will follow a similar protocol when evaluating requests to revise existing DOCS requirements and policies.

B. DOCS Expert Panel

The DOCS Expert Panel will continually work with the ODS to update and revise DOCS as needed. The DOCS Expert Panel will develop new positions, modify existing DOCS policies, and review requests for exceptions to DOCS requirements and generally represent the Defender community in all DOCS-related matters.

C. DSC Approval of New Positions

The DSC does not review and approve each individual DOCS position description. The DSC is notified and approves the series or types of positions available to defender organizations. When the ODS and DOCS Expert Panel have determined that additional positions are necessary, a proposal concerning the development of new position descriptions is submitted by the ODS to the DSC for approval. After DSC approval is received, the positions are developed and adopted by the Defenders as outlined below.

D. Drafting New Position Descriptions

The ODS and the DOCS Expert Panel will identify the individual(s) in the defender community who are most familiar with requirements of the position description(s) under development, and will request that those individuals draft the new position description(s). The new DOCS positions will be forwarded to all members of the DOCS Expert Panel, and selected staff members in the ODS and OHR at the AOUSC, for review and comment. The ODS and the DOCS Expert Panel chair will jointly agree on finalizing each position description. For new national positions, the DOCS Expert Panel is not consulted. Instead, the appropriate oversight committee or advisory group participates in the process of developing the new national position description.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND DEFINITION OF KEY TERMS

Defender Organization Classification System - DOCS

The new DOCS position description(s) will be distributed to all Defenders for review and comment, revised as considered appropriate by the ODS and the DOCS Expert Panel, and then redistributed for adoption by a vote of the Defenders. The approved positions will be incorporated into the DOCS Manual and distributed to the defender community. New national position descriptions are distributed to those with direct knowledge and involvement in the national program.

E. Revisions to Existing DOCS Policies

When a Defender has a suggestion for a revision to an existing policy, a written request should be sent to the ODS, fully detailing the reason(s) for the suggested change in policy. The ODS will evaluate the request. All suggestions for revisions to DOCS policies and the ODS evaluation will be forwarded to the DOCS Expert Panel for further action. The request will be considered, and an initial determination will be made about the feasibility of the proposal. Depending on the nature of the proposed policy, the issue may require additional research or coordination with one or more of the advisory or working groups. The ODS will determine if final disposition of the request will be issued by the Assistant Director, ODS, or by the DSC based on the scope and impact of the proposed change. Written notification of the outcome will be forwarded to the requesting Defender by the ODS as soon as possible.

X. The Comparative Salary and Experience Scale

The following table provides summary grade and experience requirements information for each DOCS position. Each position is listed in the far left column. Moving horizontally, the numbers in each column represent the number of years of general and specialized experience (expressed as g/s) required to qualify for the grade listed at the top of each column.

Please note: The general and specialized years of experience identify qualifications requirements for the employees holding these positions at these grade levels. Some positions have specific grade qualifiers. Please refer to the DOCS descriptions when making grade determinations.

Dear Mr. Moormann:

I am applying for a position as a Research and Writing Attorney in the Charlotte office, starting in the summer of 2017. My interest in working as a public defender began during my internship for the Federal Public Defender in [REDACTED] when I drafted a winning motion to suppress, several appellate briefs, and a petition for writ of certiorari. In my clerkship for Judge [REDACTED], I worked on a variety of criminal matters and assisted in implementing the U.S. Sentencing Commission's retroactive reduction of drug sentences pursuant to Amendment 782. As a law clerk for Judge [REDACTED] I worked on a number of criminal appeals, including issues such as the voluntariness of a defendant's guilty plea, whether police interrogated a defendant in violation of his constitutional rights, and interpretation of the Sentencing Guidelines.

As a [REDACTED] I expect to further develop my knowledge of federal criminal law, including the Sentencing Guidelines, by working with the criminal law committees as part of the Judicial Conference. In addition, I plan to conduct a study of administrative and procedural discrepancies in the implementation of retroactive Guidelines amendments.

My prior experiences have given me the strong research, writing, and communication skills necessary for this position. Having majored in Spanish, I would also be able to communicate with Spanish-speaking clients. I have enclosed a resume for your review.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Position Announcement
ASSISTANT FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER (APPELLATE)

Office of the Federal Public Defender
Western District of North Carolina (Charlotte Office)

The Office of the Federal Public Defender for the Western District of North Carolina is accepting applications for an Assistant Federal Public Defender to join our appellate team in the Charlotte Office. The Federal Public Defender operates under authority of the Criminal Justice Act, 18 U.S.C. 3006A, to provide defense services in federal criminal cases and related matters by appointment from the court to individuals unable to afford counsel.

Duties. In addition to handling traditional appeals, our appellate team provides extensive legal-issue support to the office's trial teams while also aggressively pursuing post-conviction relief in appropriate cases. Accordingly, the duties of this position may include: (1) researching, briefing, and arguing cases in the Fourth Circuit and the Supreme Court; (2) assisting the office's trial attorneys in identifying legal issues in pending cases, and researching and drafting motions, objections, and memoranda in those cases; (3) litigating post-conviction motions arising from retroactive judicial decisions or Sentencing Guidelines amendments; and (4) monitoring relevant legal developments and helping to train the office's lawyers, and other criminal defense practitioners, on the impact of those developments. The balance of responsibilities among these duties will vary depending on the office's needs at any particular time.

Requirements. Candidates must be law school graduates and members in good standing of the bar of any state or federal district court. Attorneys applying for this position should have sufficient experience to undertake the defense of serious criminal cases before the United States District Court and the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals. Appointment is subject to a satisfactory background investigation, including but not limited to an FBI name and fingerprint check and an IRS tax check. The private practice of law is prohibited.

Selection Criteria. The successful applicant will have a strong academic background and excellent research, writing, and oral advocacy skills. Appellate experience in federal court is preferred. Prior judicial clerkship experience is preferred.

Salary and Benefits. The salary of an assistant federal public defender is commensurate with that of an assistant U.S. attorney with similar qualifications and experience. The position is in the excepted service and does not carry the tenure rights of the competitive Civil Service. The position offers federal government employment benefits, including participation in health and life insurance program, retirement, and the Thrift Savings Plan. Salary is payable only by Electronic Funds Transfer (direct deposit).

How to Apply. You may apply by submitting a letter of interest, résumé, and representative writing sample, along with 3 references, to WDNCAapplication@fd.org. Please describe in detail your experience with appellate work and motions practice.

For applicants with disabilities, this organization provides reasonable accommodations which are decided on a case-by-case basis. To request a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application or interview process, please submit the request in writing to WDNCAapplication@fd.org.

Position announced July 25, 2018; open until filled. Applications received by August 17, 2018, will be given priority consideration.

Federal Public Defender is an equal-opportunity employer.

Attachments: App AFD posting.pdf

All,

Following up on my email from last Friday, I'm happy to report that we are going forward with the hiring of a new Appellate Assistant Federal Public Defender. This AFD will be stationed in Charlotte. Like Jared and [REDACTED] the new position will divide time between providing support for the trial teams and assisting with our appellate and post-conviction practice.

In light of this development and in order to facilitate the flow of work to the R&W's I am adjusting how work is assigned from the trial teams to the R&W's. We will no longer assign each team a designated R&W attorney. Instead, all requests for R&W support should be sent to Jared, who will then distribute the work amongst himself and [REDACTED] based on their current workload capacity and any particular interest or expertise that an R&W may have on the relevant issue. This is the system that Jared has used to handle requests from Asheville since we implemented the team structure, and he reports that it has worked well.

This is a temporary fix. Once we get the new AFD on board we will revisit the issue on how to distribute the R&W trial/appellate workload going forward.

In the meantime, if you know any attorneys who might be a good fit for the attached position, please reach out to them.

Thank you for your patience.

(See attached file: App AFD posting.pdf)

Thanks!
Tony

Subject: Research & Writing Support

All,

In light of Caleb's imminent departure, we will be adding a new assistant paralegal position for JP's team. Meanwhile, we will be making some adjustments to ensure all teams have full R&W support.

Going forward, each of our two remaining Research and Writing attorneys will be assigned to cover two teams. Jared will be assigned to Erin and Mary Ellen's teams. [REDACTED] will be assigned to Peter and JP's teams. We are still exploring the possibility of adding an additional position with research and writing responsibilities at some point in the future, so please keep your team leaders informed about how your R&W needs are being met.

Thanks,
Tony

Subject: RE: whereabouts

[REDACTED]

Different issue, We are relocating some people in the office and have an actual office with a door for you. We are relocating a new Paralegal and Claudia to the back office. The plan is to relocate you to Brian Wise's old office (Terra's office is also open but I thought you would want Brian's instead). Claudia will take Caleb's old space and the new Paralegal will be taking your old space. She will be starting on October 29th. 2 weeks from today. We need to plan on relocating your office within those 2 weeks.

Please advise on the best way to accomplish this. With your approval I can relocate your items, however for privacy reasons it would be best if you were to do that.

Thanks for your help with this.

TELEWORK AGREEMENT

The following constitutes an agreement on the terms and conditions of telework between:

Employee's name: [REDACTED]

Supervisor's name: Anthony Martinez

Court, Chambers, Court Unit, or Federal Public Defender Organization (FPDO):

Federal Public Defender Western District North Carolina

1. The employee has read and agrees to adhere to the Guide to Judiciary Policy (Guide), Volume 12, Chapter 10, Telework, and any additional requirements imposed by the court's local Telework Plan. The supervisor concurs with the employee's participation in telework as outlined by the terms of this agreement.
2. The employee is authorized to telework on the following basis:
 - ☐ Ad hoc during emergencies only, e.g., COOP events, inclement weather or similar situations, as required by local policy, or by appointing officer (executive or judge) or delegated manager or supervisor;
 - ☒ Ad hoc (including intermittent or temporary full-time telework) based on work requirements and situational circumstances such as medical recuperation periods, as approved by the appointing officer (executive or judge) or delegated manager or supervisor;
 - ☐ Regular and recurring, generally at least one day per pay period, on the following days (unless changes are approved by the supervisor):

- ☐ Full-time, when the employee is not required to report to the employing court or organization at least twice each biweekly pay period on a regular and recurring basis.

Note: The location of the telework site is the official duty station (e.g., for locality pay, leave, travel, and workers' compensation purposes) for an employee who teleworks and is not required to report to the employing court or organization at least twice each biweekly pay period on a regular and recurring basis.

3. Employee agrees to limit telework to the approved telework location. The telework location is (indicate either home or telework center, and full street address with city, county, state, and zip code):

4. Attendance and Leave

Employee's time and attendance will be documented as either regular hours or telework hours, i.e., telework hours must be documented on the employee's time sheet, whether ad hoc; regular and recurring; or full-time (Guide, Vol 12, § 930.20.30).

5. Telework During COOP Events or Weather Emergencies

- ☐ When the court or organization is closed to the public due to a COOP event, inclement weather, or other similar circumstance (e.g., flood, fire, or loss of electricity or other services), the employee is required to telework when possible, or may contact the supervisor to request leave.

- ☐ During a weather or other emergency when the court or organization is open with an option for unscheduled leave, the employee may either report to the court or organization, telework (even if it is not the employee's normal telework day), or request annual leave, or sick leave if applicable.

6. Travel and Relocation

If a full-time teleworker is required to travel to and from the court or FPDO (e.g., to attend a required meeting or training), travel reimbursement:

- ☐ is authorized;
☐ is not authorized;
☐ is authorized no more than (_____) times per year;
☒ other (please explain): Reporting to Duty Station in same city is not considered travel.

Note: Travel is not authorized when a teleworker commutes between his or her home and the official duty station (i.e., the court or organization for an employee who is not defined as a full-time teleworker). Relocation expenses are not authorized when the official duty station changes as a result of the initiation, modification, or termination of a full-time telework agreement.

7. Equipment, Supplies and/or Services Provided by the Court or Organization

The following government-owned equipment, supplies, and/or services are provided by the court or organization for the employee's use while teleworking:

- ☒ personal computer/laptop
☐ cell phone or blackberry
☐ printer
☐ USB modem internet card (e.g., 4G SIM card)
☐ supplies (e.g., paper, pens, toner/ink)
☐ other: _____

Note: For the use of government-owned equipment, see: Guide, Vol 12, § 1020.60. The government will not be responsible for operating costs, home maintenance, or any other costs (e.g., utilities) that are associated with the use of the employee's residence as the telework site.

8. Equipment and Services Provided by the Employee

The following employee-owned equipment and/or services are used by the employee while teleworking:

- ☐ personal computer/laptop
☒ land line telephone or cell phone equipment and service
☒ printer
☒ internet connectivity (cable) service
☒ electricity
☐ other: _____

Note: For use of employee-owned equipment, see: Guide, Vol 12, § 1020.65.

9. Information Technology (IT) Security

The court or organization IT manager has an inventory of any government-owned IT equipment provided for an employee's use at the telework site. Policies and procedures covering the care and maintenance of government-issued equipment, the security of equipment, and the protection of judiciary records and data from unauthorized disclosure or damage have been discussed, and are clearly understood. The employee certifies that the requirements are met, including the following:

- ☒ Employee will protect government records and data from unauthorized disclosure or damage.
- ☒ The government maintains ownership of its records, data, and any hardware or software the government provides for use by employee.
- ☒ Employee agrees to immediately report any unauthorized access to government records or data.
- ☒ The employee has completed the court's or FPDO's initial and periodic IT security training and understands his or her responsibilities regarding protecting access to the networks and systems as well as keeping sensitive information secure.
- ☒ Up-to-date antivirus software has been installed on the computer at the telework site (including procedures for when and how to update virus signatures) by the IT staff, or by the employee if an employee-owned computer is used for telework.
- ☒ The government will not be liable for damages to employee's personal or real property during telework. (For liability exceptions, see Guide, Vol 12, § 1020.80.20(b).)

10. Safety

Requirements for a safe and adequate telework space and area have been discussed and the employee certifies that those requirements are met. Some of the issues discussed include:

- adequate temperature, ventilation, and lighting;
- aisles free of obstructions;
- space free of noise hazards;
- handrails for stairs;
- labeled circuit breakers and/or fuses;
- grounded electrical equipment free of recognized hazards (e.g., frayed, loose or exposed wires);
- surge protector installed at the telework site;
- telephone lines, electrical cords, and extension wires secured under a desk or alongside a baseboard;
- office space free of excessive amounts of combustibles;
- carpets secured to the floor and free of worn or frayed seams;
- satisfactory placement of the monitor and keyboard;
- enough leg room at the desk;
- chair adjustable with adequate support.

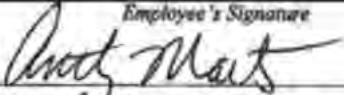

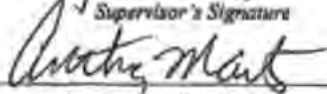

Employee agrees to permit inspections of telework site during official work hours to ensure proper maintenance of the government-owned property and work site conformance with safety standards.

11. Accident or Injury

Any job-related accident or injury occurring to the employee at the telework site must be brought to the immediate attention of the supervisor. Because a job-related accident sustained by an employee while teleworking will occur outside the premises of the court or FPDO, the supervisor must investigate any report immediately following notification. Employee may be covered under the Federal Employees Compensation Act if injured in the course of performing official duties at the telework site. (Guide, Vol 12, § 1020.55)

12. Either management or the employee may terminate participation in telework at any time.

Note: If a manager terminates a full-time telework agreement for any reason, e.g., for operational reasons or performance, the employee is required to report back to the employing court or organization location or another location at the discretion of the court or FPDO. If the full-time teleworker is required to report back to the employing court or another location outside of the commuting area of the telework location and the employee declines to report, the employee may be eligible for severance pay (subject to additional severance pay eligibility criteria). In making a determination as to whether severance pay may apply, a court or FPDO should consider whether the full-time telework arrangement and the employee's location in another area outside of the commuting area was required by the court or FPDO or allowed at the request of the employee. See Guide, Vol. 12, § 1020.30, Terms, Conditions, and Pay, and Guide, Vol 12, § 685, Severance Pay.

 _____ Supervisor's Signature	10/4/18 _____ Date
 _____ Appointing Official's Signature	10/4/18 _____ Date

Note: A court or FPDO may attach an addendum to this form to cover any additional court or organization-specific elements or requirements.
